Section 1. Format:

Traditionally members have congregated at the designated meeting hall at 5:00 PM for a Social Hour. Each member is asked to register with our Treasurer & Secretary at the Registration Table. The meeting dues and membership fees are collected at that time.

At 6:00 PM the meeting is called to order by the active President. The President will discuss the evening agenda which includes; membership updates, current issues effecting the Association, various topics of discussion, unfinished business from prior meetings, and future scheduled events. After the President has concluded the introduction, the Treasurer will report on the financial status of the Association.

When the Association Officers have concluded their introductory discussions, dinner is generally served. This is a longstanding tradition for the S.J.C.A.

At the conclusion of dinner, a Legal Update is offered by one of the designated law firms from the South Jersey Area. The legal update generally is 15 minutes in length and the Speaker will provide "handout materials" to all attending members.

At approximately 7:00 PM, the President introduces the Featured Speaker of the month. The speakers are requested to limit their presentations to 30 minutes in length. The featured topics vary with each meeting.

Additional announcements are made by the President prior to the introduction of the Vice-President who discusses the status of the contributions to the designated Association Charity. If applicable, door prizes are announced.

The SJCA does not own, rent, lease or borrow any physical location of its own. Even so, the SJCA does maintain a Post Office Box address in order to handle a large quantity of mail. On occasion, certain State and Federal governing bodies require the SJCA to list a "physical address" on certain documents, registration forms, and applications. In order to accommodate these State and Federal requirements, the SJCA will provide the address of the current SJCA President whenever a "physical address" is needed. It is the responsibility of the SJCA Board of Directors

Section 5.

Any person serving as an active SJCA Officer, Honorary Officer, Committee Member, or as an active member of the Board of Directors is hereby prohibited from serving in a similar capacity in any other Insurance Claims Association during the period they hold office in the SJCA. If there is any dispute as to whether or not a potential conflict exists, then the President of the SJCA will submit the dispute to SJCA legal counsel for review and an opinion. Then, the active Board of Directors will vote as to the eligibility of the person in question and whether or not that person can serve on the SJCA Officer Board, Honorary Officer Board, Board of Directors, or on a SJCA Committee. This restriction only pertains to Insurance Claims Associations that provide a similar service as the SJCA. However, this restriction does not apply to current SJCA Officers, Honorary Officers, Committee Members, or Active Board of Directors of the 2004-2006 term of office. This definition includes any person who is licensed to sell insurance. Often these individuals are known as insurance agents {who represent insurers in selling and servicing insurance policies} and also as insurance brokers {who represent an insurance policy purchaser}. The SJCA recognizes that insurance producers are often the first line of communication when an accident claim is reported by an insured &/or claimant.

By meeting the criteria of an “insurance claims professional” as well as all other required membership criteria as noted in the SJCA Constitution & By-Laws, an insurance producer is eligible to serve as an SJCA Officer and/or Honorary Officer if elected to office by the SJCA membership.
